The Shambhala Organisation

The Shambhala Organisation is a network of initiatives established to promote and support LGBT business leaders.

The Shambhala Organisation was established by Dale Pudney, who has the vision to see proudly gay leaders take their rightful places in the business world. The objective of the organisation is to improve the image of the gay community as a whole, by profiling gay role models, developing gay leaders and showcasing mainstream gay life, so that people can be proud to be gay.

The initiatives include:

- Shambhala Scholarships enables further study to upskill LGBT business owners, improve the careers of LGBT professionals and enable studies for future business leaders. Recipients must pay-it-forward through community service to the LGBT community and preferably the LGBT business community.
- Shambhala Private Equity invests in LGBT owned and managed high potential entrepreneurial businesses to enable business growth including funding to grow or acquire an existing business. The investment is combined with mentorship and support to help the business achieve its objectives.
- Shambhala Performance provides coaching and mentorship to improve human performance. We identify the causes of underperformance in any organization and / or individual, and assist them reach their potential by addressing those factors.

Dear Applicants

Applications are now being invited for scholarships for 2017. When completing your application, please keep in mind the following:

Objective of the scholarship

Shambhala Scholarships lays the foundation for business leadership by assisting proudly LGBT business owners / corporate professionals and leaders pursue further education that fits with the objective of developing LGBT business leaders and role models.

We are looking for leaders; people who are doing something for their communities, doing it for the good of others. Because they will be successful in whatever they put their minds to; and thereby contribute to achieving our goals.

The committee will be looking at the following criteria:

- Natural leadership qualities,
- Evidence of contributing to the LGBT community (#DoSomething),
- Ability to achieve great things, and
- The likelihood of promoting The Shambhala Organisation.

About

For 2017, there are up to ten R25,000 scholarships available.

The scholarships are available for undergrad, post-grad or part time studies where the chosen field of study will equip the candidate to pursue to improve their business leadership capabilities. There are no set rules about the study and the students are to motivate why their chosen field of study fits with the organisation's objectives.

In 2015 and 2016, the scholarships were focussed on undergraduate studies, but in 2017, we want to focus on LGBT entrepreneurs and business leaders.

Community Service

The scholarships are awarded to deserving individuals and are a grant in nature. However, the recipients are expected to provide voluntary service to the LGBT community, with the objective of promoting and supporting LGBT business leadership, in return for the scholarship grant. Individual action plans will be written into each scholarship agreement.

Rules

The following rules apply to the Scholarships:

- Funds will be paid directly to the education institution for fees and related expenses. Any balance (up to 20%) of the scholarship can be applied towards learning aids such as books, internet access and materials.
- Acceptable performance in academics (e.g.: 70%) and community service is required in order to qualify recipients for scholarships for subsequent years of study.
- If recipients fail to complete their intended course of study, then the scholarship will convert to a loan and become repayable to Shambhala.
- Scholarships will only be awarded to deserving candidates who are able to demonstrate their suitability and fit with the objectives of The Shambhala Organisation. The Shambhala Organisation reserves the right to change the number and value of scholarships awarded where it deems it necessary.
