

UNIVERSITY
OF
JOHANNESBURG

Faculty of Art, Design and Architecture

Employment Opportunities

Position: Job Title	Museum Education Intern
Industry: Interior Design, Ad Agency etc	African Art Museum
Student or Graduate:	Graduate
Full or Part Time:	Part-time Honours/Master's degree student or graduate
Company Name:	Wits Art Museum
Company Background:	Wits Art Museum is home to an extraordinary collection of over 11 000 African artworks, including contemporary and historical art from South Africa and art from West and Central Africa. It hosts a dynamic program of events and art exhibitions. The Museum is one of Johannesburg's premier tourist attractions, along with the Apartheid Museum and Constitution Hill. It is part of the Wits University Cultural Precinct, just three blocks from Nelson Mandela Bridge. WAM is in the hip, regenerating area of Braamfontein, which is also home to many students, interesting shops and places to eat. The WAM Cafe is a fun place to meet friends and enjoy delicious food and coffee.
Contact Person:	Leigh Leyde
Telephone:	011 717 1378
Email:	leigh.leyde@wits.ac.za
Physical Address:	University Corner, Jorissen St & Bertha St, Johannesburg, 2050
Website Address:	https://www.wits.ac.za/wam/
Brief Description of Duties:	The intern will be given specific tasks and responsibilities that revolve around museum education, programming and researching for the school programme. The intern will be challenged to develop their capabilities, create or enhance connections between WAM and school educators, and gain experience. The intern is expected to be flexible and to take part in various activities at the office and sometimes to conduct field research. Knowledge of at least 2 South African languages is essential.
Type of Person Needed:	Candidates should have completed an undergraduate degree in the arts. Part-time Honours or Master's degree students and graduates are also eligible. The applicant will be working at the Museum in Braamfontein, Johannesburg. We are looking for an intern who is committed, hardworking, positive, open-minded, reflective and willing to learn.

Additional Information:	This post is sponsored by Merrill Lynch, as part of its support of the exhibition Warhol Unscreened: Works from the Merrill Lynch Art Collection which will be on display at WAM from 25 July to 8 October 2017.
Working Hours:	Part-time (50%) post for 6 months. Hours: 08h30 - 12h30.
Salary or payment for once-off project:	R8 000 per month
Commencement Date:	1 May - 31 October 2017

Please note that the Faculty does not screen the advertisers nor does it screen the candidates. The Faculty merely attempts to link students and potential employers. All contact will be between the potential employers and the candidates, the Faculty will play no role in the recruitment process other than circulating the opportunity on the available platforms. All parties are advised to use their own judgement before signing any contracts and completing any work.